

Job Description: Residential Conveyancer

Fully Remote | Flexible Hours | Fee-Split Model

Are you an experienced Residential Conveyancer looking for more than just another conveyancing role? Do you find that your clients and referrers are choosing you, not necessarily the firm you work for?

If that sounds familiar, it might be time to consider a consultancy model and start earning up to 75% of the fees you generate. Many lawyers have already made the move to consultancy, and it's transforming the way they work, and the money they earn.

At FDR, we specialise in helping conveyancers make that transition with confidence. Choosing the right firm can feel daunting – even isolating – but that's where we come in. We're a bespoke, forward-thinking boutique firm that offers more than just a platform. Here, you're not just another number. Your voice matters, your work is appreciated, and your growth is genuinely supported.

We're a close-knit, modern legal practice giving experienced conveyancers the chance to take full control of their careers, with the very best technology to back you up. You'll have direct access to senior leadership, streamlined systems, and the freedom to work how and when it suits you

Why Join Us?

Personal Support, Not Just a Platform: We don't leave you to figure things out alone. You'll get real support to grow your business – with marketing help, mentoring, and a community of like-minded consultants who share insights and success.

Work on Your Terms: Remote working, flexible hours, and total autonomy over your caseload. It's your practice, built your way – under a clear, fair fee-split model.

Big Tech, Small Firm Feel: We've invested in Salesforce – a game-changer in legal tech. Thanks to the backing of our parent company, the AICC Group, we have access to cutting-edge systems that mean fewer manual tasks, significant time savings, and a smoother experience for you and your clients.

You're Heard and Valued: In our compact team, you'll have a direct line to leadership and the ability to help shape how the firm evolves. We listen, and we act on what matters to you.

What We're Looking For:

- A qualified solicitor, licensed conveyancer, or legal executive with quality experience in residential property
- Confident in managing your own caseload from instruction to completion
- Tech-savvy and excited by smarter, more efficient ways of working
- Self-motivated and ready to grow your own client base with full backing
- Looking for true flexibility, with the support of a professional and collaborative team

Ready to build a career on your terms – with the tools, support, and autonomy to thrive? Then we would love to hear from you.
